

Eric Folmar is the current Chapter President of APTA MA. He is the Associate Department Chair and Associate Clinical Professor for the Department of Physical Therapy, Movement & Rehabilitation Sciences at Northeastern University. His research interests are in orthopedic rehabilitation, injury biomechanics, gait and running biomechanics and Kinesiotaping. His downtime includes running, carpentry, and spending time with his family.